$135,000 Settlement for Sideswiped Motorcyclist

Our 42-year-old client was sideswiped and knocked from his motorcycle, suffering a torn rotator cuff and tendon tears that needed to be repaired with surgery and supplemented with physical therapy.

Our office was able to obtain a $135,000 settlement to cover his medical expenses and the damage to his motorcycle.

MEET THE TEAM

Each month we'll feature a member of the VanDerGinst Law team to help you get to know us!

Mike Galvin (Attorney)

Michael Galvin was born in Rock Island, IL and has been a life-long resident of the Quad Cities. He realized his childhood dream of attending law school when he was accepted to Valparaiso School of Law. Upon graduating in 1984, he passed the Bar and took a position with Potter, Gillman, Galvin, Konecky, and Keesee in Rock Island, IL. Within five years, he became a full partner.

Mr. Galvin has over thirty years of experience as a lawyer, making him eminently qualified to provide the highest level of legal services to his clients. He focuses on veteran's disability and personal injury. Mr. Galvin practices law in both Iowa and Illinois, as well as various Federal Courts.

Outside of the practice of law, Mr. Galvin was a member of the Quad Cities Postal Credit Union Board of Directors for 15 years. He served on the Board of the Bettendorf Family Museum for several years. He is the father of three beautiful and talented daughters and is fortunate to be married to his amazing and lovely wife, Kitka.
