A SERVICE OF VANDERGINST LAW

WELCOME TO VMAIL

Hey, folks!

Welcome to the new Vmail! We have started email services with Constant Contact to more easily (and beautifully) convey news and updates to you.

We also welcomed new team members to VanDerGinst Law who will work at our new offices in Des Moines, IA and Chicago, IL.

The Purdue Pharma Lawsuit: File Your Claim in the Opioid Crisis

Opioids caused a national addiction crisis and widespread harm to individuals, families, and communities. Were you, or someone you love, prescribed opioids prior to September 15, 2019 and injured using these opioids? If so, you might be eligible for compensation. All claims against Purdue must be filed by 5:00 p.m. on July 30, 2020, so please contact us right away if you believe you might have a claim.

How to Dispose of Unused Medicine

When you end up with unused leftover medicine, whether prescription or over the counter, it's important to dispose of it safely. In many drug recall cases, like the recent Zantac recall, you may have the potentially dangerous drug still in your home. Unused medicine that is stored instead of properly disposed could accidentally be ingested by those who were not intended to use it. Find out a few ways to dispose of your unused medication.

TESTIMONIALS

REAL PEOPLE, REAL STORIES.

"If you have any doubts about law firms, you aren't alone. However, the folks at VanDerGinst will change your mind. They are respectful, knowledgeable, and don't just treat you like another customer. 10/10."

Derek W., Client

"I really appreciate how great they are with communication, both with clients and medical professionals. I am a medical provider and not all attorneys are like this, so we refer all our clients here who need an attorney, whether it's for an auto accident or a work injury. Great firm."

Dr. Logan Jenkins, Jenkins Chiropractic
